

Illinois Valley Area Chamber of Commerce and Economic Development

December 29, 2009

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Anna Lijewski, I am the Membership Coordinator with the Illinois Valley Area Chamber of Commerce and Economic Development (IVAC).

On Tuesday November 17th 2009, IVAC partnered with three keynote speakers who provided excellent professional training on how to stop the "Leadership Insanity" in the workplace.

Our speakers were Lee Ann Piano with Noteworthy, Yona Lunken with Thinking Skills and Ami Dean with WithIn Inc. Each speaker had their own topic that pertained to leadership skills and a style of speaking that kept the audience participating and enthusiastic.

This letter comes as a high recommendation to anyone needing or looking to have a workshop/ training seminar in their area or place of business.

I would recommend each of these speakers as an individual or as a group. Our guests walked away with knowledge that they will carry-on to help improve the environment of the workplace and the respect of their employees. I feel this topic is crucial and it is one that you will want to provide to your business chamber members or current leaders in the workplace.

Our speakers were easy to work with and made the day enjoyable.
