Re: Yona Lunken – Strategic Thinking

I enthusiastically offer this endorsement of Yona Lunken’s helpful consulting work – coaching, facilitating, workshop leadership.

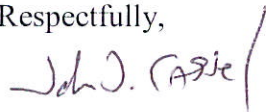

I have worked with Yona on a number of projects and workshops. He served for a term on his local School Board and we had a number of professional connections in this regard.

Yona brings a great background (MA in Cognitive Psychology) and enthusiasm for the work. As importantly, he practices the “lifelong learning” he advocates. He is careful and thoughtful in his work – listens carefully to identify goals, plans carefully for quality events, facilitates expertly with experience and thoughtfulness to fully engage participants.

Yona is thoughtful, knows his subject matter and has great personal skills and talents. In my experience he will work with you on design and will deliver on the plan.
